

CHRIS BELL
25TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
MEMBER-ELECT

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release
January 2, 2003

Contact: Eric Burns
(713) 294-1605

Congressman-elect Chris Bell to be Sworn-In to U.S. House of Representatives in Washington D.C.

Former Houston City Council Member and Mayoral Candidate Chris Bell will be sworn-in to the U.S. House of Representatives this Tuesday, January 7, 2003.

Congressman-elect Bell will be available for media interviews the morning of Tuesday January 7, 2003 in his Washington Office, 216 Cannon House Office Building, or by phone.

Please contact Eric Burns at (713) 294-1605 with questions or to schedule interviews.

The Swearing-in will begin at 11:30 am EST (10:30 am CST) with a watch reception in the Congressional Office of Member-elect Bell.

Congressman-elect Bell will represent Texas' 25th Congressional District.

The 25th Congressional District covers much of central and southwest Houston, West University, Bellaire, Pasadena, La Porte, Highlands, Baytown, Channel View and Fort Bend County, as well as other areas. The 25th Congressional District also includes the Texas Medical Center and the Port of Houston.

More details to follow soon...